

The Transatlantic Crossing, by Cunard

There's nothing quite like a Transatlantic Crossing on one of our Queens. Switch off. Indulge. Be entertained. All while watching one of the world's mightiest oceans sail past your window.

Crossing the Atlantic on a Cunard Queen is a welcome opportunity to leave the everyday behind and immerse yourself in the world on board. Best of all, it offers you the freedom to spend each day and night on board however you please. Now isn't that enticing?

Perhaps you'll choose to indulge in our famous Afternoon Tea, served daily in the Queens Room by a symphony of white gloved waiters. Or a flight of Cunard ales in the Golden Lion pub, while putting your general knowledge to the test in a quiz. You could discover the secrets of our universe from your velvety seat in Queen Mary 2's planetarium, sharpen your sword skills in a fencing class, or join an esteemed guest speaker for a fascinating Insights Talk.

Many Transatlantic Crossings sail directly between New York and Southampton, either one-way or roundtrip. Selected sailings depart from Le Havre or Hamburg. Others combine a Transatlantic Crossing with calls in Iceland, Norway, Canada, Bermuda, the Azores, or Northern Europe, adding yet another wonderful dimension to this most legendary of ocean voyages.
